

Do YOU Ask Great Questions????

Here are some GREAT Questions to ask:

What's your(our) goal?

What are our limitations? Constraints?

What's our chief constraint? What could be done to eliminate it?

What would be helpful for you right now?

What's possible in this situation?

What could I/we do to be helpful, useful, productive, loving, kind, or serving?

What could be possible if we work together?

What other resources are needed?

Who else should be here?

What are the gifts, talents, treasures, skills, and abilities available?

What or whose viewpoints aren't being represented?

What's the most loving thing to say or do right now?

How shall I or we show up? What hat should we be wearing?

What opportunities do we have?

What would please God, honor God, bring glory to God in this situation?
