

World Wanderers News – February 2023

We held our February meeting on Feb 7th at 7pm. Thanks to Dan Srebnick, Dennis Gehringer, Jordan Genetos, Charlie Miller, Linda Brigham, and Jack Hynd for the photos and presentations. More videos and information are available at <http://charliegross.com/travel.html>

Here's the viewable link to the slides (without Jack's) World Wanderers 2-7-23 \(1\).pptx

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, March 7th at 7pm with a focus on Day Trips. We'll have a presentation by Elite Bus Company and also on some possible day trips with photos and discussion.

Send your comments, volunteer names, focus ideas, etc to Charlie Gross at cwgross@gmail.com or text to: 717-468-1568

From the 3x5 card survey:

FOCUS IDEAS

Bali, South America, Panama Canal, Chili, Thailand, Egypt, Africa

Egypt (Diana Ludwig volunteered to present)

Iceland, Norway & Scandinavian Countries, Asia Pacific, New Zealand

Country, Area, or means of transportation, airport, etc.

Egypt, China, Safari

DAY TRIPS

Philadelphia Flower Show, Baltimore Aquarium

Peddlers Village, Gettysburg

Philadelphia Flower Show, Smithsonian Museum, Baltimore Aquarium, New York Auto Show

Cherry blossoms trip

Washington DC, Baltimore, New York City

Mt Cuda, Brandywine River Museum

African American History Museum

New York City, Winterthur in DE, Longwood Gardens (Christmas)

Volunteers for Day Trip committee

Liz DiBenedito, Jordan Genetos

LONGER TRIPS

National Parks

Seneca Lake, NY – 4 votes

Williamsburg, VA

Noah's Ark, Williamsburg, VA, Savannah, GA

Panama Canal cruise, England

Washington DC, Grand Canyon, Alaska, Niagra Falls

Glacier National Park

Galapagos Island cruise, Pacific Northwest coast, Hudson Valley, Vancouver,
Tulip time festival in Holland, Michigan, Montreal and or Quebec, Sedona

Bar Harbor and New England

Mississippi River, Great Lakes

Volunteers for Longer Trips committee

Tom Tindall